

Africa in Modern Cuban Dance: Eduardo Rivero

África en la Danza Moderna Cubana: Eduardo Rivero

A Documentary Premiere Screening with a discussion with Director and Producer Juanamaria Cordones-Cook

Thursday, Feb. 15 at 7 PM

Leadership Auditorium, Student Center

The film documents the life and artistic legacy of Cuba's great dancer and choreographer Eduardo Rivero. A member of the founding generation of contemporary Cuban art, Rivero developed a unique technique to dance and teach the craft. He created unforgettable choreographies and was a master of generations of dancers in Cuba, the Caribbean, Europe and Canada. The event is sponsored by MU Black History Month Committee, University of Missouri, and the MU Cambio Center.
