

The Cambio Center at the University of Missouri – Columbia presents:

1st Student Midwest Latino Research Symposium:

Los Pioneros del Futuro

Date: September 26-27, 2008

Location: Memorial Union, University of Missouri, Columbia, MO

Forum for students involved in Latino related research initiatives...

Goals of Symposium:

- Establish an identity for Hispanic/Latino issues in the Midwest region by creating a network of young interested researchers
- Identify future directions for research and practices related to Hispanic/Latino research in the Midwest region
- Share important research regarding Latino issues

Benefits Gained:

- Being involved in a working, interactive symposium – the first of its kind!
- Gaining experience in presenting research
- Networking with fellow Latino student researchers
- Part of a printed publication!
- Selection of presentations will be invited to be a part of a publication

Target Population:

- Graduate students from institutions in the Midwest region interested in presenting research with a Latino focus
- Open to all graduate level students interested in Latino issues
- Undergraduates are also encouraged to submit abstracts with a letter of support from their advisor

Contact Information: Monique Mendoza mmmwy6@mizzou.edu and Kawika Allen geahxf@mizzou.edu.

Please check out more information on the website:

www.cambio.missouri.edu